

A large collection of cities is called what?

A State

Countries are found on what type of land?

Continents

What do you call a large group of people that live close together?

A City

A group of states is called what?

A Country

Province, commonwealth and district are alternative names for what?

A State

What is the biggest place that you can be from?

A continent