

Which holiday is on the 1st Monday in September and honors the nation's working people?

Labor Day

Which holiday is on the 2nd Monday in October and honors the European's first visit to the Americas?

Columbus Day

Which holiday occurs on the 11th day of the 11th month and honors the brave Americans who have fought in all wars?

Veteran's Day

Which holiday on the 4th Thursday of November gives thanks to the tradition of sharing?

Thanksgiving Day

On the 3rd Monday in January, a peaceful civil rights leader is honored. What do we call that day?

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

Which holiday in February originally honored George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, but now honors all of our country's highest elected officials?

President's Day

Which holiday originally honored those who died in the Civil War, but has now been extended to honor the memories of all loved ones that have died?

Memorial Day

Which explosive holiday celebrates the signing of the Declaration of Independence?

Independence Day